SALES OF PUBLIC LANDS IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—We publish, to-day, the Proclamation of President Lincoln, ordering the sale of a large portion of the surveyed public lands of Washington Territory sales to commence at Olympia on the 13th of July, and at Vancouver on the 3d of August This is the first public sale of lands ordered in that Territory, and many tracts advertised are, or will eventually become very valuable There are probably some mistakes made in the description of these lands, including lands already claimed or entered hence it would be well for everyone interested to observe the advertisement, and be on hand at the commencement of sale, and secure the land wanted

WHEREFORE THE CHANGE?—The altered tone of remark of the men and papers in the North who heretofore have advocated peace upon any terms, is now significantly apparent. The reason for this change is equally apparent One of the most rabid of these journals now says, "the war will go on unless States and people in rebellion submit to the constituted authorities" The voice from the army, the unanimity with which Congress has passed the conscription or enrollment bill and other important measures, the great Union meetings throughout the land, and the spirit of determination on the part of the masses of the people not to submit to the separation of these States, but to fight till the rebellion is subdued, have given the leaders to understand how soon their doom will become a fixed fact, and also, just the place they will occupy in history

GRAND DIVISION, S OF T.—The semi annual session of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance, was held at Temperance Hall in Albany, on Tuesday and Wednesday last. The following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing term A Shreve, of Dallas G W. P, W H Gibbs, of Salem, G W A; W R Dunbar, of Salem, G S; N Wright, of Albany, G T, C H. H Hale, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, accompanied by Mr G F Whitworth, Chief Clerk of the Superintendent's office, arrived in this city on Saturday evening last, en route for the Lapwai Agency, near Lewiston, at which place a treaty is shortly to be made with the Indians of that region We did not learn whether Mr Huntington, Superintendent for this State, accompanies Mr Hale or not.

AN ATTEMPT AT DROWNING.—A crazy or drunken individual, or both made an attempt to drown himself, last evening, by jumping off the People's Transportation wharf, but owing to the vigilance of our City Marshal he was quickly fished out of the water and conveyed to the lock-up We did not learn his name.

A GOOD THING.—Mr Benj Simpson, Agent of Siletz Reservation, came to the city yesterday in search of straggling Siwashes and up to 6 o'clock, P. M., he had succeeded in corraling about a dozen, which were placed under guard until the whole band can be collected, when they will be marched back to their proper places

I O O F.—The eighth annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Oregon I O O F., will be held in Corvallis on the third Wednesday of May

STATE ARMS.—We learn that Gov Gibbs has issued arms to Capt Powell's company of Oregon Militia in this county

CRUEL.—A powerful writer in a California paper, discussing the "masterless situation" of the war, says Gen McClellan an all-planning, non-performing, an all strategic non projective man, marched confidently in and lagged reluctantly out of the sublime vacancy" The General has had very hard things said of him, but nothing so crushing as this! Why can't this writer be employed by the Government to write against the rebels? After one such discharge of his quill there could not fail to be a 'sublime vacancy' among them

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 25th.

News of April 25th

MEMPHIS April 2[illegible] —There is nothing new from the front Gen Smith came in from Tallahatchie to day, and reports that Chalmers had broken up camp and his forces had fled promiscuously through the country Gen Smith could not follow as Chalmers [illegible] was divided into small fragments

FORTRESS MONROE April 2[illegible] —[illegible] C H Hum[illegible] [illegible] from North [illegible] Island S C She [illegible] which [illegible] the Monitor [illegible] that place and [illegible] the island

WASHINGTON April 2[illegible] —Advices from headquarters Army of the Potomac mention that important arrests had been made at Falmouth of persons who had been engaged in the operation of the Submarine telegraph cable under the Rappahannock for the purpose of communicating information to the enemy This has been suspected for a long time but until now no discoveries had been made

MURFREESBORO Tenn April 2[illegible] —Advices from Nashville state that the citizens who had been notified by the order of Gen Rosecrans to move South have almost without exception [illegible] sent North All their advices from friends in the South advise this course They say the South is going to ruin rapidly

STANFORD Ky April 2[illegible] —Captain Slough of the 44th Ohio with about 100 men attacked a body of the enemy yesterday [illegible] hold on the road to Williamsburg killing four men and three horses and capturing nine prisoners and five horses We sustained no loss The enemy were driven across the river

NEW YORK April 2[illegible] —A special dispatch to the World says a particular [illegible] has been effected in the [illegible] of the Navy Department in consequence of the failure of the attack on Charleston New instructions have been issued respecting the armament of the iron clads not only those at Port Royal but those now building The Dahlgren gun armaments are to be removed and entirely new thirteen inch guns capable of using seventy five pounds of powder as a charge to be substituted This will be done before the attack on Charleston will be renewed By means of this change a single effective shot may be [illegible] Fort Sumter It is only to be effectively bombarded at a much greater distance These guns are now in process of construction but it is believed several weeks will elapse before they can be put into a sufficient number of Monitors to permit the renewal of the attack

It is estimated that the rebel losses in the late attacks on Suffolk and Nansemond were eight to our one

The French steam corvette Berthol[illegible] from Vera Cruz the 7th [illegible] commander says the report of the defeat of the French at Puebla must be erroneous as when he left all was quiet

John C Fremont in a letter to Gen Halleck suggests the occupation immediately of the Pacific Railroad line by large bodies of colored men freed by the President's Emancipation Proclamation He says in urging consideration of the proposition since there is so large a number of our able bodied citizens in the army, it would be a matter of great economy; and the great rapidity with which the road could be driven forward by the employment of this class of people makes this subject worthy of the most liberal discussion

WASHINGTON, April 25 —A dispatch from headquarters of the Army of the Potomac says the severe rains ceased last night

The rebel pickets inform us they had a new rebel General on their side who treated them with great severity His name is General Starvation

CHICAGO, April 25 —Memphis dispatches of the 22d make no mention of the repulse of our troops referred to in the Richmond Whig of the 21st According to best authority no fighting of consequence has occurred on Coldwater or near Hernando, after the fighting of Saturday and Sunday Several houses were burned at Hernando on the 21st The dispatches add that rebel reports say Gen [illegible] ing arrived from Fort Pemberton with several thousand men and reinforced Chalmers More hard fighting is anticipated

The condemned Sioux who have been imprisoned at Mankato, since last fall have been sent to hard labor during the continuance of the Indian war probably for life

CAIRO April 2[illegible] —Advices from below state there had been a cessation of fighting on the Coldwater Thus far the Federal loss has been when our gunboats and transports ran the blockade of Vicksburg All went past the Warrenton batteries but the Forest Queen which having been disabled put into the lower mouth of the canal for repairs

STONEMAN'S STATION Va April 25 —On Thursday morning an expedition consisting of two regiments, reached Port Conway and at daylight launched several pontoons crossed the river and [illegible] Port Royal which was occupied by a body of the enemy's cavalry, numbering [illegible] over 200 The cavalry were speedily dispersed, and twenty or more of them were captured A number of army wagons were also captured and burned and several horses and mules were brought away Our forces held the town an hour or more, and then a heavy body of the enemy's infantry with artillery appeared our men safely returned to this side of the river and on Thursday night were again back at camp without loss

CHICAGO April 23d —[illegible] Atlanta Intelligencer [illegible] Rosecrans [illegible] and that the great battle of the war will soon come off between Nashville and Chattanooga

The Jackson Appeal says Grant's army is evidently being removed, and most probably its destination is Cumberland and Tennessee Enough it says will be left behind to oppose our forces at Vicksburg while the main body moves rapidly to the assistance of Rosecrans The Daily Mississippian in an article on the same subject says In a careful survey of the situation which the movements of the Federals present the conviction has been gradually forced upon our minds that the enemy is preparing to mass a tremendous force perhaps not less than 300,000 men in Middle Tennessee to hurl it against [illegible] with the hope of annihilating his army and opening the Mississippi Valley and the heart of the Confederacy The [illegible] this hypothesis is that the forces are now concentrated at Memphis are moving rapidly into Mississippi In this case the recent stringent order issued by the Federal authorities of Memphis are explained

The [illegible] Rebel says From present indications I may hazard the opinion that the campaign in Middle Tennessee will be opened in earnest In pursuance of recent orders from Bragg all tents and extra baggage are being sent to the rear [illegible] flies to every 10 men

CAIRO April 25th —Vicksburg [illegible] to the 17th says the batteries on the [illegible] state the city is in full operation and working splendidly All the [illegible] been turned up in the [illegible] buildings Yesterday a huge shell entered the large depot building and [illegible] leveling a greater part of it to the ground The enemy fired several shots [illegible] which [illegible] killed [illegible] with [illegible] injury They evidently think our [illegible] incomparable and for the last two [illegible] mentioned and [illegible] the [illegible] now taking place [illegible]

The [illegible] reports that a [illegible] has been [illegible] left Davis' plantation opposite New Carthage to [illegible] landing of our troops

A steamer [illegible] into the canal at Duckport [illegible] New Carthage [illegible]

NEW YORK April 2[illegible]th —A special dispatch to the Herald says the President [illegible] the [illegible] military [illegible] fill the [illegible] elsewhere but are entirely [illegible] for the work

News of April 26th

ST LOUIS April 2[illegible] —Dispatches from Cape Girardeau announce that the rebels 8,000 strong under Marmaduke and Burbridge attacked our forces at that place at 11 o'clock this morning Hard fighting continued for three hours at the end of which time the rebels were [illegible] by [illegible] that they would change [illegible] our [illegible] twenty killed The rebel loss is not stated

NASHVILLE Tenn April 2[illegible] —Several [illegible] Vicksburg [illegible] army had arrived at Tullahoma [illegible] Bragg [illegible] deserters [illegible] Bragg [illegible] March [illegible] Some deserters state that the Tennessee, Kentucky and Mississippi troops in Bragg's army [illegible] mutinous [illegible] The Tennessee [illegible] arms and refused to do duty

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC April 2[illegible] —The enemy has increased [illegible] along the heights at the back of Fredericksburg and strengthened his pickets Their camps are more numerous and their troops can be seen drilling almost at all hours of the day [illegible] other side of the [illegible] Affairs remain quiet on the Upper Rappahannock though [illegible] rebel cavalry still [illegible] along the lines

News of April 27th

NEW YORK, April 2[illegible] —A Fortress Monroe [illegible] a strong force of infantry, cavalry and artillery under Corcoran, was sent out from Suffolk on the [illegible] drive the enemy from their rifle pits which were doing a great deal of damage Our forces advanced cautiously and drew the fire of the enemy's artillery and then opened on the rebels which was returned by them

The infantry were ordered to charge the [illegible] which were carried at the point of the bayonet dislodging the rebels The cavalry started in pursuit and succeeded in capturing a number of prisoners The enemy was driven back several miles and fell back on the main body of Longstreet's army which is heavily entrenched

WASHINGTON April 27 —The latest intelligence received here up to yesterday noon is that all is quiet on the Nansemond above and below Suffolk Refugees report that the attack on Suffolk was in the character of a foraging expedition

CAIRO, April 27 —On last Wednesday night six transports loaded with forage Commissary stores and various kinds of Government freight, protected on the larboard side with [illegible] hay bales ran the blockade at Vicksburg They left Milliken's Bend at nine o'clock accompanied by the Von Phul, with Gens Grant McPherson Logan and some two hundred prominent officers of the army on board The Tigress led the way without a light intending to float down until discovered and then steam down at the greatest possible speed The other boats were to follow in the same manner at considerable intervals The Tigress had been gone but half an hour when a [illegible] against the sky over the point [illegible] a short space of time by a peal as of distant heavy thunder told us she was discovered and the upper battery opened on her The Von Phul quickly dropped down to the head of the old canal and from that point we witnessed a grand demonstration As the boats swept round the bend battery after battery opened upon them We could trace the progress of each by the discharges great [illegible] over spreading the earth and sky with a ruddy glow The cannonading continued for three hours and over six hundred shots were fired but, miraculous as it may seem four boats escaped unscathed

The Moderator was disabled by the explosion of a shell in her engine room but will soon be repaired The Tigress was struck between wind and water near the stern tearing a hole large enough to sink her in a short time She is thought to be a total loss The whole thing, however, was a complete success The crews of the vessel were volunteers from the various regiments, and over a thousand men offered their services We have now nine gunboats two rams seven transports, besides a large number of flat boats and barges below Vicksburg Gen Grant went [illegible] New Carthage last Thursday It is almost certain that large [illegible] have left Vicksburg to reinforce Bragg, and that the place is now held by artillery only

NEW YORK April 27 —The Herald says from Mexico we are in receipt of [illegible] accounts to the 1st of March [illegible] a different aspect on the state of affairs there From this it would appear that instead of the Mexicans having suffered defeat as published through French [illegible] they invariably repulsed the assaults [illegible] and [illegible] skill and valor Not being informed of anything positive through [illegible] since the 6th of April [illegible] supposition that the Mexicans have as yet been successful in their defense of Puebla and that the French are as far from capturing it as when they started

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27th —The anxiety for the safety of the steamer Oregon from Mexico, was relieved by her safe arrival yesterday The rumor that she had been seized by secessionists, of course, was purely sensational Her detention was owing to her having some bags of coin not down on her manifest which were seized by custom house officials Gov Mar[illegible] at last ended the matter by turning out of office several of the officials who caused her detention

Reeves, Myers, Graham and ..., each and all, sustained their several ... admirably, but the ... of the piece was the ... and ... played by the little Debutante, Miss ... Gillespie, who, with her child-like simplicity and faithful and untiring devotion to her drunken father and heart-broken ..., caused the tears to trickle down many ... in the audience, the song of "come home ..." when she goes to implore her father to come home from the tavern was rapturously applauded, and to satisfy the audience, she sung it, amidst showers of half and quarter dollars. The final wind up of this ... affecting moral drama was the sudden opening out of the grandest tableau we have ever seen represented on the stage, in which the drunkard's murdered child is pictured as an angel in Heaven.

By particular request of many citizens who could not obtain seats on Saturday evening, the piece will be repeated to-night, with some additional improvements, and we would say to all our citizens, if they wish to encourage the presentation of a great moral lesson ... calculated to benefit a large class in our midst who cannot probably be reached in other ways, they should go to see this drama, and thus sustain by their patronage the continuation of such useful and important ... Those who wish to obtain reserved seats should apply early.

SEWING MACHINES

Are ... simplicity of construction ... and will do

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A ... range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood or brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S Sewing Machines

use a straight needle, curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

Union Leagues—A Reason for Them

Editor Oregonian

For more than two years a terrible rebellion has been in progress within the limits of the United States, the object of which, as openly declared by its leaders, was to destroy the American Union, and build up a separate Confederacy, composed of all the slave States on the North American Continent. The theory of secession, which has always been denied and resisted as a political heresy by our wisest national statesmen, when finally put in practice by Southern rebels in the inauguration of civil war, has met with stern resistance from every man who truly loves our republican institutions and who has faith in our destiny as a Nation. The objects of this great treason have been identical from the day the first ordinance of secession was passed at Charleston, South Carolina, on the 20th of December, 1860, and the means they have employed have been uniform since the same Charlestonians began war against our American Republic by attacking Sumter on the 12th of April, 1861. If the claimed right of secession from the Union was ever false and ruinous as a political principle, it is now and always false and ruinous. If treason and rebellion against a free Government like ours were ever damnable and hell deserving, they should now be damned to double infamy, and sunk to the deepest hell provided for political Judases, because of the Union blood they have shed. Our ill success when we anticipated easy victory, and our disappointment at the magnitude of the contest, do not for a moment change the principle involved, and if our fathers obeyed solemn duty, and gained immortality of fame by laying broad and deep the foundations upon which we were to build, our duty is no less imperative to preserve and transmit unimpaired, the inheritance we received of them in trust, for all the future. The result is certain, if we are only true to ourselves. "The mills of the gods, though they do grind slow, grind exceeding fine." And if the contest be prolonged, it will be more perfectly settled at last. It can be no part of the scheme of universal benevolence to suffer so foul a conspiracy to blast the fair tree of Liberty which has grown upon our American Continent, and toward which all the nations looked as toward a tree of life, from which they should gather fruit of example to heal them of the curse of kinghoods and aristocracies.

Let Union Leagues be formed, and let every man, woman and child, whose heart beats responsive to the music of the Union, sign, pledging life, fortune and sacred honor, in this holy cause. Let the names be enrolled proudly, as of those who are worthy sons and daughters of worthy sires, true to themselves and to their country. We are far from the scene of strife; broad plains and lofty mountains intervene between us and the battle fields of our country, but we are in the great commonwealth, and we should send back such word as to show our brothers in the East that we are not lying in supine indifference to the result of this great crisis, but that our hearts and hopes are with the Union.

"Sail on, sail on, Oh Ship of State;
Sail on, Oh Union strong and great;
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea,
Our hearts, our hopes are all with thee.
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee, are all with thee."

Jos D. Locey.

Rebel Preferences.—The rebel editor of the Richmond Dispatch, says. Between the two classes of our mortal foemen at the North there is little to choose. One is commercial and the other crazy. If the latter are more cruel and devilish in their loth, the former are more persistent and systematic in action. If we had only the lunatics to deal with we might hope for a lucid interval, or possibly that their insanity might vary its form. But of the commercial classes we can entertain no such expectations. They have invested their money in the war, and they intend to get it back, if they send every dollar they have left after that which is gone. If we were called upon to say which is the worse man, Wendell Phillips, who is the embodiment of Massachusetts fanaticism, Edward Everett, who represents its conservatism, or Caleb Cushing, its politician, we should find no difficulty in a reply. We have infinitely more respect for Wendell Phillips, or any honest fanatic, than either of the others. The fanatic has principles—such as they are—while the commercial class has no principle whatever but selfishness. If it is opposed to Abolitionism, it is because the success of Abolitionism would be fatal to trade. Could Conservatism be convinced that freeing the slaves would increase the production of cotton, it would be converted in an hour into the very genius of universal emancipation. We dread and detest such an enemy as this more than honest Abolitionism. We despise and execrate Edward Everett and Caleb Cushing more than Phillips or Garrison. No man of honor could take Everett or Cushing by the hand—the latter especially. If there be a negro in the South as degraded as Cushing, he ought instantly to be freed and sent to Massachusetts.

A Nassau letter says: If the Government could only be persuaded of facts which are developed here daily, see the letters from the Southern States and hear the remarks that are dropped by the rebels fresh from Dixie, they would appreciate the deplorable state the poor wretches are in, and be convinced that an energetic and properly conducted move in almost any direction would suppress the rebellion.

The disclosures made before the grand jury at Indianapolis, prove that the avowed objects of the Knights of the Golden Circle are, to promote the desertion of soldiers with their arms, the surrender to the enemy upon parole without conflict, resistance to drafts, interference with enlistments and the overthrow of the Government. Prominent democratic politicians were involved in this treasonable affair.

The National Resources.—Geo S Boutwell, writing to friends who had urged him to continue to perform the duties of Revenue Commissioner, says "His experience in the office of internal revenue has enabled him to comprehend with more clearness than ever before the magnitude of our national resources, and he has gained confidence daily in the ability of the country to carry on the war to a successful termination."

"Doctor, do you think tight-lacing is bad for Consumption?" "Not at all, madame—it is what it lives on."

One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured [illegible] then. From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, [illegible]

Dr. Ayer Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of [illegible] upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and G[illegible]

From the Rev Dr Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church

Pulaski House, Savannah Ga, Jan [illegible]

Honored Sir I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. [illegible] settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating [illegible] which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding [illegible] the best physicians the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. [illegible] I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

Senate Chamber, Baton Rouge, La, [illegible]

Dr. Ayer I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous [illegible] of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
